The Other Events at the Saucer Were Interesting-Smith and Samuelson Take a Tumble.

Through his ability to stick to his pace and the inability of O. E. Emory and J. P. Gunn to stick to their pace Charile Turville carried off the prize and some applause at the Salt Palace last evening. The event was practically a repetition of the twenty-five-mile affairs and did not stir up the people to the hair-raising wild shouting stage. In the vernacular of the cyclists, Turville had a "cinch" and he knew it long before the race began, It didn't take the crowd long to comprehend it, either. As previously stated, the result was through ability and inability to Both motor-cycles were in perfect ondition, and on exactly the same over, so it was not the fault of the

KILLED OVER A GIRL. One Pugilist Delivers a Fatal Blow to Another in a "Try-Out."

New York, Aug. 17.-George Kelley is dying in Seney hospital in Brooklyn, from the result of a knockout blow delivered by Michael Myers in a "try-out" it at the Greenwood Athletic club mies on account of a young girl and sought the ring so the grudge could be settled regularly. Kelley has not yet regained consciousness.

THE 25TH INSTEAD OF THE 24TH Date of the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey Mill Changed.

New York, Aug. 17.—The battle be-tween Fitzsimmons and Sharkey at Co-ney Island will be decided on Saturday night, Aug. 25, instead of Friday, Aug as was originally intended. Saturday being the date of the great futurity vent at the Sheepshead Bay race track, which usually acracts thousands of rs from out of town, as well as an influx of bookmakers and turfmen from the Saratoga race meeting, the club managers, after consulting with Shar-key and Fitzsimmons, decided to pull off the fight on Futurity night.

"FITZ" MAKES A STATEMENT. Famous Pugilist Gives Good Advice

to Young Men. There is a great deal of interest taken in the fact that Robert Fitzsim-mons, who is 42 years of are, should so easily defeat a much younger and stronger man than himself. Many people would like to know how Fitz ages to retain his great vitality he following statement from Fitz maself, is therefore, very interesting: Maybe it's because I am a father that I am prompted to give a word of advice to young men. I am younger than the average man of 24 years because I did not forget that I had a body to keep strong and healthy, and not to undermine with bad habits. ### SPORTING NOTES.

John M. Chapman nearly had his racing career ended for all time Thursday afternon. While he and Iver Lawson were working out, a negro, called "Race Horse Dick," ran into Chapman. The negro was standing on the track and as Chapman came around he yelled for Dick to get out of the way. Dick jumped, but it was in the wrong direc-tion, and there was a crash. The colored man was knocked fully fifteen feet. He was not injured as badly as was Chapman. The latter's knee was badly wrenched and his collar bone nearly fractured.

John M. Chapman, Roy Hodgert and A. W. Smith left at 4 o'clock this af-ternoon for a trip to Provo on their wheels. They will return tomorrow morning.

Ed. Nelson, Iver Lawson's trainer, feels very much injured in his reputation over the report that he was one of the party alleged to have massage a female rider who was caught training on the track last week. Nelson says the

The racing public is anxious that the Salt Palace management arrange for a match motor race between Chapman and Iver Lawson and the Turville brothers before the racing season closes. Chapman's new motor will be here in about three weeks.

Chapman and Lawson will wager any part of $1,000 with the Turvilles that they can defeat them in a match motor race of any distance, to start from op-posite sides of the track or together.

Roy Hodgert, who has entered the professional class, will ride again next Tuesday evening. He is anxious for a match race with either Gen Green or J.

CLAIM TO WATER.

Sells Lime, Cement & Rock Co. Files Appropriation Papers.

George Y. Wallace and John P. Hill, on behalf of the Sells Lime, Cement and Rock company, late yesterday afternoon filed with the county recorder a notice of appropriation of water in Emigration canyon.

It will be recalled that Hill, on behalf of himself and others, recently struck a big flow of water at the depth of 53 feet at a point in the canyon in the vicinity of Wagener's brewery, on land belonging to the Sells Lime and Cement company.
This is the water that is the subject

With the filing of the notice arises a point which will be watched with due care by City Engineer Kelsey. The city engineer affirms that the flow of water owned by the city coming from the anyon to the amount of more than 900,000 gallons a day, derives its source from the same springs as ence in the prospect on the part of Hill. If this should turn out to be correct, the flow of water in Emigration canyon will be materially decreased. The operations will be watched carefully and in the advent of the surmise of the city engineer proving correct, litigation will undoubtedly follow.

The notice of appropriation, as filed yesterday, sets forth that the water is to be utilized in the irrigation of 2,500 acres of land in sections 9, 10, 15, 16, and 22, township 1 south, range 1 east, and for generating electric power for manufacturing and other purposes. It further states that in order to develop the water and to convey it to the points to be affected, the appropriators con-template the boring of a tunnel 6 feet 6 inches high and 6 feet wide, and will which will be 6 feet wide and 3 feet

Meade's report is dated at Tien Tsin, July 16th. 'On the firing line the action was especially not, and the enemy's fire especially rapid and accurate, and at about 8:30 a. m. the enemy appeared in large numbers upon our left, among the grave mounds of the field in which we were, with the evident intention of flanking us. them away, "Later in the day, about 2 p. m., they again made a flanking effort, but a this time the infantry support of th artillery company was on the mud wall of the city and aided us by a crossfire. The effort of the enemy proved a failure and we drove them in.

"We remained in the trenches until about 8 p. m., when we received an order from the brigadier-general commanding to withdraw, which was probably the most difficult action of the day, since the enemy had so well covered ered our position that their shots struck the crests of the trenches and threw dirt in our faces, many being hit.
"Gen. Dorward ordered that the roops should sleep on their arms that night, and on the following morning to enter the city. The south gate had to be blown in by guncotton.

"The troops had had nothing whatever to eat on the 13th, save the small luncheon which each man carried in cheon which each man carried in his haversack. It was not expecte when we started that the action would prove so long, but Gen. Dorward, knowing the situation, kindly sent to the reservation for food and other ne-cessaries, and the bivouac proved a success, and the men, although fatigued, were ready for duty.

"On the 14th instant, the south gate having been blown in, we moved into the walled city at about 6 o'clock a. m. We found the city filled with dead Chinamen and animals. No resistance was made to our occupation in the walled city itself, but infantry fire was kept up by the Japanese infantry upon the enemy, who responded from the suburbs. Since then we have had un-disturbed possession of all Tien Tsin." Col. Meade inclosed the following let-

The regimental adjutant, First Lieut, Henry Leonard, as Lieut, Butler was suffering severely, volun-teered to carry him out of the firing line. This gallant feat he successfully accomplished, but, I regret to say, was very dangerously wounded in so doing.

The Ninth regiment was fighting somewhat outside of my sphere of action, so I am to bring forward only one instance of personal gallantry in that regiment, although, circumstanced as they were, fighting for about twelve hours almost alone and unsupports and never giving back a foot of ground until directed to retire under cover the night and the fire of the naval guns, such instances must have been very numerous. The one I would refer to is the bringing back to me by the acting regimental adjutant, Capt. Law ton, of the account of the position of the regiment across a wide and fire swept space, and returning with rein-forcements to guide them to his regiment when he was severely wounded.
